Eliud Kipchoge

Kenyan Athlete

Eliud Kipchoge is a Kenyan long-distance runner, who competes in the marathon and formerly specialized in the 5000 metres. Kipchoge is the 2016 and 2020 Olympic marathon champion, and was the world record holder in the marathon from 2018 to 2023. He is widely considered to be one of the greatest marathon runners of all time.

In 2025, Kipchoge announced a new project known as Eliud's Running World, where he will run seven marathons across seven continents over a period of two years to raise awareness about sustainability and education; this would also be in an effort to raise money to build libraries in Kenya.
