

This October at NTSU

This October at NTSU

Vanessa Nakate

Ugandan Climate Justice Activist

Vanessa Nakate is a Ugandan climate justice activist. She gained international recognition for her climate activism in Uganda, where she began a solitary climate strike in 2019.

Nakate is the founder of the Youth for Future Africa and the Rise Up Movement. She has been a prominent voice at UN Climate Change Conference (COP25) and the World Economic Forum. Her work focuses on drawing attention to climate change impacts on African communities and advocating for renewable energy projects in Ugandan schools.

Nakate serves on the Malala Fund Board, supporting girls' education and climate challenges.

Want to join in
on Black History Month events
this year?

Click here to find out more